

Prayer of a Single Person

Eternal God,
from my mother's womb you have known and loved me more than I can ever know.
I ask for the courage to live a holy life, that your hand guide my decisions and that your mercy be extended when I seek my own glory instead of yours.
I ask for the wisdom to know your will for me, and like our Blessed Mother, I ask for the strength to say yes.
May I find you in every person I meet, and may my life so shine forth your goodness and love that each person may be led to you through Jesus, your Son, who is Lord, forever and ever. Amen.
