

4. Do Catholics worship the Saints?

No, Catholics do not worship Saints because they are not God. They are not even considered gods but are gifts from God. All Saints are saved by the blood of Jesus and not by their works. We therefore celebrate their lives as examples to imitate.